

MASTER CLASS WITH Teruo FURUYA & Mizuka ONISHI

SHAKUHACHI & KOTO

28 & 29 MARCH 2015 IN SAINT MAURICE / PARIS

TERUO FURUYA - shakuhachi master

Born in Osaka, Teruo FURUYA initially started the shakuhachi at the Tokyo Gakugei University. In 1969 he became a student of Katsuya YOKOYAMA (1934–2010). He studied and stayed with him for 41 years.

After graduating in 1971 from Tokyo Gakugei University and the NHK Traditional Music Conservatory, he passed the prestigious NHK Traditional Japanese Music Audition.

FURUYA performs regularly in Japan as well as abroad, e.g. France, Belgium, Morocco, Syria, Thailand, USA and Australia. He has also participated in many International Shakuhachi Festivals, e.g. Bisei (Japan), Boulder (Colorado), Tokyo, New York, Sydney and Kyoto, often not only as an invited player but also as an organiser or adviser.

Additionally he was invited by the European Shakuhachi Society to the European Shakuhachi Summer School in Germany 2014 and France 2007 as one of the principal instructors and performers.

Currently Teruo FURUYA is the director and chief instructor of Kokusai Shakuhachi Kenshu (KSK International Shakuhachi Training Centre) founded by Katsuya YOKOYAMA in 1988. He also teaches at NHK Traditional Music Conservatory and the Tokyo Gakugei University.

FURUYA has recorded several CDs. Most recently he recorded Ukigumo a Honkyoku solo CD (2013), Fudô (by Kineya Seihô) shakuhachi trio with Kaoru KAKIZAKAI and Kazushi MATAMA (2013) and Modan – Teruo Furuya meets Keisuke Doi Vol.1 (2014). He also appears on numerous CD and DVD recordings with Katsuya YOKOYAMA.

MIZUKA ONISHI - koto & sangen

Mizuka ONISHI studied traditional Koto-Sokyoku and Jiuta-Shamisen with Hatsuko KIKUHARA (the late Living National Treasure of Japan), and a modern Koto playing style with Tadao SAWAI. She graduated from the Conservatory NHK in traditional music.

ONISHI has been featured on radio programs in Koto-Sokyoku and modern Japanese music on NHK (Japan Broadcasting Corporation) such as Hougaku no Hitotoki, performs very regularly in recitals in Japan and abroad, e.g. in France, China and Australia. She was also invited by the European Shakuhachi Society to the Summer School in France in 2007.

ONISHI is continuing to expand her koto playing style into the fields of contemporary and ethnic music, which allows her to perform with western and ethnic musicians.

Currently she teaches Japanese music and music instruments at the Graduate School of Education, University of Shimane and at the Department of International Cultural Exchange, Tottori College.

She was awarded twice for her cultural contributions by city of Yonago (1998, 2008). She featured on several CD recordings, e.g. Kangen-Hisho (1996) and most recently Modan (2014) with Teruo FURUYA.
